OHIO TOWN IN HANDS OF MOB

BEYOND CONTROL OF CITY AUTHORITIES.

Destruction Wrought in Negro Section of Springfield, Ohio—Troops Finally Arrive and Hold Mob in Check.

Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 27.—To night mob violence was threatened as the result of a shooting in the railroad yards this morning in which M. M. Davis, a brakeman, was perhaps fatally shot by two negroes, Preston Ladd and Edward Dean. Ladd was taken to a hospital this morning as a result of injuries received, presumably in connection with the shooting of Davis, where he lies in a ward adjacent to his victim. Dean was taken to Dayton for safe keeping.

A mob of one thousand marched to the "Jungles," a locality inhabited by colored people, with the announced intention of burning that section. In the "Jungles" the mob battered one house to pieces with stones and posts used as battering rams. A general fire alarm was sounded. The sounding of engine gongs brought crowds into the streets and feeling was intense.

The mob entered Komper's saloon and looted it. Komper and wife fled, leaving their three children asleep in a room over the saloon. The building was riddled with bullets and stones, and it was only by the hardest efforts of police and firemen that the children were rescued. After pillaging the saloon drunkenness was an added feature of the riot. At 11 o'clock the mob broke through a garden of cabbages and set fire to and destroyed a house in the "Jungles."

Troops ordered have not yet arrived. At midnight six houses fired by the mob were burning fiercely and the police had apparently lost control of the situation. Only six members of the local militia responded to the mayor's call and the Xenia company has not arrived.

STONING TROOPS. Sheriff Almoncy has wired Governor Patterson to rush troops. The mob was stoning and jeering the militiamen but a show of bayonets has sufficed so far to keep the rioters on the move. Rumors that out of town troops are momentarily expected is having a quieting effect on the mob.

FORCING RIOTERS BACK. Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 28.—Shortly after midnight the city authorities succeeded in assembling seventy-five men of Companies B and E, stationed here. They are now on the scene and have pushed the mob back. Just as the troops arrived one more building was fired and no effort was made to save it. The efforts of the police, firemen and soldiers are now directed solely to forcing the rioters back and saving property outside the doomed square.

PRISONERS SAFE IN DAYTON. Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 28, 1:30 a. m.—Both Ladd and Dean are now safe in jail in Dayton. Their removal undoubtedly saved them from being lynched. Scenes to night are similar to those which ended in the lynching of Richard Dixon, a negro, in this city two years ago. Four companies of troops have been assembled at Columbus, two at Dayton and one at Urbana and are under waiting orders.

CAROLINIAN KILLS WIFE. Richmond, Va., Feb. 27.—Mrs. Mattie P. Hodges of Durham, N. C., was murdered in her bed at an early hour yesterday morning by her husband, John H. Hodges, according to his own confession, she was dragged from a sick bed by the infuriated man, her left arm being broken in the scuffle. She was shot through the heart as she lay on the floor at her husband's feet.

The tragedy was witnessed by their 19-year-old son, who was himself knocked down by his father when he attempted to interfere. Mrs. Hodges had recently instituted divorce proceedings against her husband. The murderer was promptly captured and confessed the crime.

BUILDING FIRED

Attempt Made to Burn Hall Occupied by Boys.

Shreveport, La., Feb. 27.—An unsuccessful attempt was made by an incendiary last night to burn the boys' hall of the Louisiana Industrial school at Ruston. Piles of excelsior and shavings saturated with kerosene were fired under the building and the timely discovery of the blaze by one of the occupants of the edifice prevented a conflagration which would probably have cost many lives. Eighty boys were asleep in the building at the time the attempt to burn the place was made.

GERMAN VETERANS

Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary of Emperor and Empress of Germany.

Boston, Feb. 27.—Veterans of the German army and navy participated to night in an elaborate celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the emperor and empress of Germany. A patriotic demonstration, followed by a banquet, was held at the Turnverein hall. At the banquet Prof. Hugo Munsterberg of Harvard university addressed the assembly and touched upon the tariff situation, between the United States and Germany. He declared an economic war would be a gigantic misfortune for the two nations, which are to day almost each other's best customers. "We ought to celebrate this German silver wedding," said Munsterberg, "by a promise to work incessantly for destruction of the absurd prejudice against Germany and do our best and our utmost that before the year's anniversary act comes to an end, public opinion in this country shall demand a sound, strong and just commercial treaty between the United States and the fatherland, to the end that the two nations can maintain relationship and loyalty for many years to come. Such a resolution and such an achievement of Germans in America would be the most splendid and the most beneficial gift at the silver wedding."

REFUGEE MISSIONARIES. Pekin, Feb. 27.—The American consul says General Rodgers telegraphs from Shanghai that the fourteen American missionaries who fled from Nanchang all reached Kiukiang in safety. The gunboat Elcano is proceeding from Nanking to the scene of trouble.

Shanghai, Feb. 27.—Survivors of the massacre of missionaries at Nanchang have arrived at Kiukiang. The French cruiser Descaartes and the American gunboat Quirós sailed to day for Kiukiang. It is understood the British sloop Cleo and gunboat Teal are already there.

London, Feb. 27.—Telegraphing from Pekin, the correspondent of the Tribune says: "The subject of Nanchang, who has had a bad reputation among foreigners since the boxer troubles, invited missionaries to a banquet. After the banquet the subprefect withdrew and attempted to commit suicide. This act, in Chinese eyes, necessitated vengeance and led to the massacre of missionaries."

Lawton, Okla., Feb. 27.—Five men were burned, two fatally, by the explosion of a gasoline lamp in the jail corridor to day. The fatally injured are: John Jamison, hydro-carbon operator, and Andrew Fitzwater, a prisoner.

STATEHOOD BILL VOTE IN SENATE

WILL BE TAKEN MARCH NINTH.

Military Matters Occupied Time of House—Morgan and Cromwell Have Another Legal Battle.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The senate to day agreed to vote on the statehood bill before adjournment March 9th. The proposition to take a vote at that time was made by Beveridge and there was little difficulty in reaching an understanding. The suggestion immediately followed a speech in support of the bill by Hopkins, during the course of which Hale suggested the territories were not prepared for statehood and suggested that their admission be deferred.

The remainder of the day was devoted to discussion of the bill providing for settlement of affairs of the five civil war tribes of Indians, the major portion of the time being given to the provision for disposal of coal lands in the Indian Territory.

HOUSE

Military matters held the attention of the house to day, the army appropriation bill being under consideration for amendment. That General Corbin and General MacArthur might become lieutenant generals the provision in the bill abolishing that rank was eliminated on a point of order raised by Grosvenor of Ohio, who substituted an amendment to abolish the grade after these officers had been promoted, but this, too, met defeat.

Members of the appropriations committee disputed the right of the military committee to appropriate for an apparatus for fire control of field artillery, but without success. Only eight of the fifty pages of the bill were passed upon when the house adjourned.

The house passed the Datzell bill chartering the Lake Erie & Ohio Ship Canal company, with an authorized capital of $50,000,000.

ANOTHER LEGAL BATTLE

William Nelson Cromwell and Senator Morgan measured legal minds all day before the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals, and in the middle of the battle the committee adjourned until to-morrow. Morgan pursued the witness relentlessly concerning his relations with the Panama Canal company, asking many skillful questions, which were as skillfully evaded. Cromwell drew the line between his actions since the transfer of the canal property to the United States and before the transfer and declined positively to answer any questions concerning the earlier periods. At the close of the day Morgan had brought out a scheme for the Americanization of the Panama Canal company, which promised to furnish the subject for an interesting examination.

AMENDMENT TO RATE LAW

Senator Lodge to day introduced an amendment to the railroad rate law providing for the displacement of the present interstate commerce commission by a new commission of nine members. The amendment provides that not more than five of the members shall be of one political party; that three of them shall be lawyers; three persons of experience in the management of railroads. The salaries are fixed at $12,000 for each member except the chairman, who is given $500 more.

BODY DROPPED OVERBOARD

Packer Fowler's Remains Cast Into Sea.

Act of Ship's Officers Prostrates Widow of Dead Man—Relatives Will Push Investigation—Explanation Refused.

New York, Feb. 27.—Why the body of Anderson Fowler, millionaire financier and meat packer, who died in the harbor of Genoa, was buried at sea by officers of the Cunarder Carpathia, which arrived here yesterday, will be investigated to the fullest extent by his grieving and angry relatives. The burial was made in the face of protests from the aged widow, who was on board. Although every preparation had been made to receive the body and the funeral cortege was at the dock, the only explanation that the officers would give was that they felt it inadvisable to longer keep the body on board. They said it was a matter of discipline. The burial took place Feb. 20, when the Carpathia was in mid-Atlantic.

When she swung into her pier yesterday there was a distinguished gathering of mourners waiting for the remains. Everything was ready for the funeral service and interment. Among these waiting were seven of the children of Mr. Fowler, besides a score of lifelong friends, including E. R. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Brown and Irving Bacheller, the author. On board the ship were Mrs. Fowler, the widow; Arthur A. Fowler, her eldest son, and one of her daughters.

The widow and her son and daughter, who had protested in vain against the burial, were much affected. They said that it was 6:30 o'clock p. m., Feb. 20, when, with twilight already fallen, the body was dropped overboard. The widow was so prostrated at this that for the rest of the voyage she was almost constantly under medical treatment. She had to be carried from the ship by her sons and was hurried away in a cab to her home.

The ship's surgeon said: "This matter is disposed of. There is nothing more to be said. The body was buried at sea because of necessity."

According to the rules enforced on all steamship lines, bodies are not received unless in hermetically sealed caskets. The body of Mr. Fowler was turned over to a Neapolitan undertaker with this understanding, and it was supposed to have been properly prepared for shipment when it was placed on the Carpathia.

GIVEN SMALL RAY OF HOPE

MAY SETTLE QUESTIONS OF POLICE AND BANK.

Hope Revived by Willingness of Germany to Make Concessions on Moroccan Situation—Hopeful View by German Papers.

London, Feb. 27.—The report from Berlin that Germany has expressed a willingness to make concessions on the Moroccan situation if France will yield something, and the announcement from St. Petersburg that Russia is using her influence at Berlin to prevent a rupture between Germany and France at Algiers, gave Great Britain a ray of hope that the conference might still succeed in settling the questions of police and the state bank of Morocco. These hopes, however, are not strong. "It must be remembered," said an official to day, "that France made concessions before the conference met and has continued to do so since. Now Germany, which heretofore had refused to withdraw a single step, says she is prepared to give way on some points if France yields something. It is difficult to see what further France can concede. To give an unfriendly power control of the state bank would be prejudicial to Frenchmen who have been financing Morocco for years, while any relaxation of efforts by France to tranquilize the sultan's peace by handing over the police to the powers would cause endless troubles in her North African colony. Even the suggestion that she give Italy a hand with herself and Spain of officering the gendarmerie seems unreasonable. France should control the finances and the police of Morocco."

HOPEFUL ATTITUDE

Berlin, Feb. 27.—The Sued Deutsche Reich's Correspondenz of Karlsruhe, which has the reputation of being the purveyor of Chancellor von Bismarck's views on foreign policy, maintains a much more hopeful attitude relative to the Algiers conference than the latest utterances of the French press. The Correspondenz deprecates the assertion that the conference is about to disband because of hopeless disagreement, and says its continuance is assured to the present, adding that the "intrinsic reasonableness of things," to use Gambetta's phrase, "speaks against a hasty breaking off of deliberations, and it will not come to that unless influences gain the upper hand which shall make of the Moroccan question a plaything of political passions."

The Correspondenz says the bank question is no longer a mere diplomatic duel between France and Germany exclusively, but that the material interests of a number of other powers weigh against the special claims of France in the bank question.

MADE GOOD TIME

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—All records for movement of troops from the Atlantic seaboard to this city were broken to day with the arrival of a Southern Pacific special carrying the Eighth regiment regulars. The regiment left Jersey City at 8 p. m., Feb. 20, and arrived here at 7 p. m. to day. The transfer was effected in six and one-half days, and had it not been for a delay of seventeen hours at Lordsburg and a stopover at Los Angeles of seven hours, the time would have been but five and one-half days.

Bridgport, Conn., Feb. 27.—Five minutes after the factory girls had marched out of the Star Shirt company's factory to day at 5 o'clock, the building was a roaring furnace and within an hour it was in ruins. These were taken from windows to the ground by firemen. All other girls continued quietly on their march. HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR Spends Bad Quarter of an Hour While Detained From Class Meeting by Junior Bandits.

"Come with us, we need you," was what Albert Johnston, a senior of the high school, heard Tuesday evening when he was captured by a number of the juniors, while on the way to a class meeting.

The seniors of the high school held a class meeting in the high school building Tuesday evening and the juniors knowing that this meeting was to be held, held a mass meeting in hiding within a short distance from the building to see what they could do to give the seniors a little trouble. They were not kept waiting for a chance very long, for down the street, comes one, Albert Johnston, a senior, and the word was immediately passed along the line of the juniors to seize him and hold him tight. When he (Johnston) came near enough he was pounced upon, and failing to break away, was led west on West State street to Diamond court, when the route was changed and they proceeded south as far as Charles Fitch's grocery store where they stopped and secured a supply of entablatures. After this had been done the captured man was led into a field on Anna street where a large fire was built and all gathered around. After giving a few of their school yells which made the neighborhood for some distance around think that some Indian band from the territory had made their escape and were hunting blood. This part of the program finished, next in order was the feeding of the captive with the food bought at the grocery store.

The entablatures gone, John Mullenix was named as constable and in a few fitting words for the occasion, announced the subjects and speakers in their turn, and it is needless to say that about this time the captive was becoming a little worried and was afraid that he should miss his class meeting, but this only made the juniors carry out their program to the letter. A few of their yells were given after the speeches were over and the captive was led back to the school building after an absence of about an hour and a half and was allowed to enter.

AT THE GRAND

"Pretty Peggy," with Jane Corcoran in the title role, was the offering at the Grand Tuesday evening. An audience of decidedly small proportions witnessed a production of real merit interpreted by a competent cast. Miss Corcoran is an actress of splendid attainments and in her portrayal of Pretty Peggy she met the demands of the part in a most capable manner. Walter Law as David Garrick also played his part admirably and the supporting cast was excellent. The investiture was adequate and the company deserved a big house.

PITTSBURG OPERATORS

OPPOSED TO ADVANCE IN MINERS' WAGES.

Meeting Today Promises to be a Warm One—Soft Coal Miners Must Recede From Their Position in Order to Avert Strike.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 27.—The meeting of operators to-morrow promises to be a stormy one. "Turbulence" is expected to arise over the attitude of some independent operators in the Pittsburg district, who are opposed to any concessions whatever. Several of these mine operators to night expressed their intention of being present at the meeting and entering a vigorous protest against any concession. "The opposition to granting an advance in miners' wages is said to be based on the fact that the coal trade to day is in a worse condition than it was two years ago, when the miners accepted a reduction. If there is to be any change at all, the opposition claims it should be along lines of further reductions than for advances."

MINERS MUST RECEDE

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 27.—President Kolson of the Indiana Blumhouse Operators' association, said that despite reports from Pittsburg, Indianapolis and New York in regard to the coal strike being averted, he does not see how it can be accomplished unless the miners recede from their position. FATIGUE BEGINS AT 30

Harvard Professor Says Man Stops Growing in 3 Decades.

New York, Feb. 27.—Dr. Charles S. Minot of Harvard, told an audience at the Academy of Music that a man's "permanent fatigue begins at the age of 30." Old age, Dr. Minot said, began actually before birth.

With a number of stereopticon charts he endeavored to show the decrease in the power of growth. Guinea pigs and rabbits also were used as illustrations. It was shown that the percentage of growth is greatest in the first month after birth, and that it steadily decreased from then. In other words, a man ages faster the first year after his birth than ever after. A child in its first year learns more than it ever acquires in an after year.

"The things we learn afterward," said Dr. Minot, "come harder each year until the time comes when a man can acquire no more and his power of originating ceases. His usefulness, while not altogether gone, is on the wane."

"This is the case of the average human being. Of course, as Dr. Osler says, there are exceptions. That is to say, there are cases of men who have not lost power learning even in old age. Yet there are few cases where one does not literally have to hammer new ideas into a man's head after he has reached the age of 40."

"We are better able to get enjoyment out of life than any other animal," said Dr. Minot, "but the price we pay for power to enjoy life is death. The lower organisms escape death, but what they lose by this so-called earthly immortality is a total lack of faculties."

The lower order of animal life, the doctor said, never died except by accident. When the time arrived for what might be termed their natural death the organism divided in two complete organisms, duplicates of the original.

LONDON MIRROR MAKES COMMENT

On America's "Romeo and Juliet"—Declared Wedding of "Nick" and "Al-lus" Bar-nimmed to Death—How we Look to Our English Cousins.

An illustration of how some of our English cousins look at us on this side of the Atlantic is well instanced in the following article taken from the London Daily Mirror, issue of Feb. 12. The article may have been written by the Englishman, who in touring America met a stranger in St. Louis, who asked if he were going west before he returned to England, and forthwith the Englishman fainted, or the writer may have been a cousin to that other Englishman, who, upon arrival in New York, asked where the buffalo were. The article reads:

In five days' time Miss "Al-lus" Roosevelt will be referred to in the American papers as "Mrs. Nick." Then, after accounts of the Roosevelt-Longworth wedding have filled whole pages in every newspaper on the continent, the "great American nation" will have to find something else to talk about.

Not time they step out of a motor car as the one in which Mr. Nicholas Longworth, the bridegroom, is to be graciously allowed to take a minor part at the white house, Washington, next Saturday.

It has been "barnummed" almost to death. Every newspaper reporter in America looks upon himself at Miss Roosevelt's press-agent, and, to use the names by which he refers to the bride and bridegroom, it has been "Al-lus" first and "Nick" now.

Now the music halls have followed the newspapers' lead, and the consequence is that all America is singing the following chorus:

She's a typical Yankee girl,
For she wouldn't marry an earl,
But stuck like a brook
To her dearest "Nick."
She's a Yankee-Doodle girl.

"The modern Romeo and Juliet," as one paper calls them, are followed everywhere they go by an army of reporters, and every time they step out of a motor car a battery of cameras opens fire. One paper publishes the following time table, showing how the bride spent twelve hours:

Arrived in Jersey City at 12:51
Waited ten minutes for ferry and reached West Twenty-third street ferry 1:30
Drove in automobile cab to Sherry's, arriving 1:50
Phoned the St. Regis, arriving 2:00
Launched with Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt 4:10
Started for St. Regis with Mrs. Vanderbilt 4:20
"Sherry" at a Fifth avenue milliner's from 4:30 to 4:50
Tried on gowns at her modiste's from 5:00 to 5:45
Dressed for dinner at Robert Goetz's from 6:00 to 7:15
Arrived at Sherry's for a dinner given by the Cornelius Vanderbilts 7:35
Arrived at opera 9:15
Went to supper at Sherry's 10:40
Returned to the Goetz's 12:51

The "North American" uses the following headings—among many others—to describe a day spent at Mr. Longworth's Haverford residence:

MISS ROOSEVELT IN COUNTRY RESTS; HAS STROLL WITH "NICK."
LONGWORTH AT HER REQUEST,
KEEPS HER AS CAMERA
EYE WINKS.

Then, after relating how "Al-lus" slept all night, it says that "Nick" persuaded his sweetheart to accompany him and a party on a walk in the grounds. The journal continues:

"Instinct, perhaps it was, that led the party toward the river bridge and that led to the jokes of the Merion Cricket club; but it was more than instinct that prompted two of the group to fall slowly back of the party until shrubbery hid them from sight."

Among the 4,000 wedding presents which have already arrived or are expected are the following:

A set of gold embossed china from the Kaiser.
Bronze ornaments from the tsar and tsarina.
Gobelin tapestries from President Loubet.
Costly jewels, silks and ermine robes from the dowager empress of China.
Five thousand pounds sterling from Cuba.

A Boston terrier, worth 300 pounds, with rubber mounds dog suits, furs and leather sundials, and a silver-mounted schedule showing how and when it should be fed.

Two diamond and emerald lockets from

Mr. William Taft, secretary of war. Pearl collar of ten strands, valued at 6,000 pounds.
Diamond tiara containing 500 stones. Magnificent silver service from the Rough Riders' association.
A solid gold rifle from which gold bullets can be shot.
Miss Roosevelt will spend the greater part of this week in attending "Valentine parties," teas, dinners, luncheons, receptions, at homes, and all kinds of fetes arranged in her honor.

As the wedding ceremony will take place so near St. Valentine's day, many gifts which Miss Roosevelt's girl friends will present will be emblematic of the season. She has already received two exquisite turquoise hearts set in gold and a bracelet with a clasp of two hearts outlined in diamonds.

After a glowing description of the brilliance of the display of dresses and jewelry expected at the white house on Saturday, the journal remarks: "The affair will be a crush."
Perhaps that is the best way of describing the "barnummed" ceremony of which America is talking.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Beginning Saturday, March 3, at 3 o'clock Miss Phebe V. N. Dummer will conduct the weekly story hour for children. All children between 6 and 12 years of age are cordially invited.

RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS

Miss Doerr's Letter Tells How Vinol Helps People in This Condition.

By request the following letter is published in the hope that persons who are in poor condition will be convinced that Vinol is really what we claim.

Miss Anna Doerr, a prominent woman of Evansville, Ind., writes: "My health was broken, my appetite gone, my nerves shattered and I was simply in a wretched condition. I had tried so many medicines and doctors without help that I was thoroughly discouraged. As a last resort I tried the cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, and to my surprise it had none of the fishy, greasy or disagreeable taste of the old fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions, and it was delicious to take. In a remarkably short time it gave me a hearty appetite, built up my nervous system and restored me to perfect health and strength."

"Vinol cures such conditions as these because it contains every one of the medicinal, curative and body building elements of cod liver oil and without one drop of the system-clogging oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. It imparts in a natural manner strength and vigor to every organ of the body, aids digestion and makes rich, red blood. We ask every run down nervous and debilitated, aged or weak person in Jacksonville suffering from stubborn colds, hanging on coughs, or bronchitis to try Vinol on our guarantee. It costs nothing if it fails to give satisfaction." Leo P. Allcott, Drug-gist.

UNION SERVICE

Another Large Audience at State Street Church Tuesday Night —O. B. Culpepper Told of the Leprosy of Sin.

Tuesday night witnessed another successful meeting at State Street church. The interest in the union revival seems to be increasing daily and has certainly been augmented by the announcement of the building of a tabernacle. Last night Rev. O. B. Culpepper preached the sermon, taking as his text: "And Elisha sent a messenger unto Naaman saying, go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee and thou shalt be clean." "Naaman was insulted because what was told him to do was so simple—to dip seven times in the River Jordan. There is something in suiting the action of the body to the emotion of the mind. Naaman, at first said he would not do as he was told. In order to be saved the sinner has to make a start. If you would put yourself in the hands of these ministers they would help you. The place for you to confess Christ is right where you have sinned. It sometimes takes persistence in seeking to find God. If you try to night and are not satisfied, then keep seeking. If Naaman had dipped but six times he would not have been healed. But he met the requirements and the desired result came. Naaman was tired of leprosy. Leprosy stands for sin and sin like it starts only from a spot and spreads. Leprosy affects the taste and the vision. If you asked a leper to pick out an attractive person he would choose one broken out with sores. So sin changes tastes and vision and the sinful soul the company of the sinful. There was no healing of leprosy except by divine intervention. And so it is with sin; there is no help for it save from God. Whatever you do get rid of the leprosy of sin and give your heart to Jesus."

During the after service there was great activity on the part of the ministers and other workers and a number of those seeking to start life anew went forward for prayer. Rev. O. B. Culpepper, who works actively among young men was able to report a special interest and numerous promises from young men. There will be a meeting for children this afternoon at Centenary church at 1 o'clock. Meeting to night at State Street church as usual.

Clara Barker, of the Bend neighborhood looked after business in the city Tuesday.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE

President Rammekamp Delivered First of Series of Addresses to Students on History of School at Chapel Exercises Tuesday Morning.

President Rammekamp delivered the first of a series of lectures on "The History of Illinois College" in the chapel of Illinois college Tuesday morning. These lectures will cover the history of the college from its inception to the present, dealing especially with its early days and will be given at the Tuesday morning chapel exercises. Dr. Rammekamp chose for the subject of yesterday's lecture "The Inception of the Idea of Illinois College." He said in part: "Illinois college like all of the older institutions of learning in this country found its origin in a religious movement. We can truthfully claim the church as our foster mother. The religious idea is everywhere found in the older colleges, for example, take so small a matter as the college seal—we find on ours and on every one a religious motto. The institutions arising not from religious, but from other causes, like our state universities, came at a later day than we are dealing with and statistics bear out the statement that three-fourths of the colleges in the United States to day had their origin in the church.

"Our college resulted from two forces; one local, another outside; one eastern, another western; one Presbyterian, another Congregational. My purpose this morning will be to deal with the local force at work here in the west for several years prior to the founding of the college.

"Nearly all of our educational institutions were dreams in the minds of some great men before they became facts. Cornell was the dream of Andrew D. White, Leland Stanford, the dream of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Stanford, and Illinois college was the dream of the Rev. John M. Ellis, a pioneer missionary from the east to the west, who came to Illinois in 1825. Mr. Ellis was the man who really first conceived Illinois college and I believe there should be a tablet to his memory on the walls of our chapel, alongside with those to the memory of our past presidents. The dream of Mr. Ellis, for such is the best name for it, was laid out and published in a series of articles in the Kaskaskia Reporter in 1827. In this plan he advocated the establishment of a seminary of learning with a farm and workshop in connection, where poor students could work their way through college and the extension of the college at some future time so as to include the teaching of females. Whether Mr. Ellis had any conception of co-education as we speak of it to day I do not know, but it is interesting to note how the future dealt with his dream in this connection. When the college was actually established and its management turned over to others who had a more practical knowledge of education they changed some of the plans but in the main they stood intact.

"Mr. Ellis began his campaign for a college by interesting local people and so kindly did the people of Scholes Creek, Bond county, take to the idea, that a board of trustees was appointed and work commenced for its location in Bond county. The question was brought before the Presbytery of this district which then included all the counties of Missouri and Illinois and received its endorsement. It is here that Mr. Julian Lippincott enters upon the arena of the founding of Illinois college, and he at once cautioned Mr. Ellis not to be too hasty in selecting a location, that better inducements might be offered elsewhere than in Bond county and Mr. Ellis and Mr. Lippincott in January 1828 set out on this mission. On nearing Jacksonville they were much impressed with the beautiful view from the Mound on the Mound road west of this city, and also with the elevation which is the present site of the college. After talking with citizens, however, they went on to Springfield, but on their return trip they found so much enthusiasm manifested here in regard to a college that they selected Jacksonville as the location.

"At the same time a movement in New Haven, Conn., entirely unknown to Mr. Ellis, and the movement in the west, for the founding of a college, was shaping, which were to combine and form Illinois college."

ASH WEDNESDAY

Comment Regarding Lenten Season, Which Begins Today—Reasons For Its Observance—Regulations Prescribed by Church.

The observance of the Lenten season begins with Ash Wednesday (to day) and in explanation of its observance by the Catholic church the following is offered:

"Under the old law the Jews fasted under the command of God. Thus Moses fasted forty days and forty nights on Mt. Sinai when God gave him the ten commandments. Elias too, fasted in the desert. Jesus also fasted and commanded His apostles to fast. The Catholic church says St. Leo, from the time of the apostles has enjoined fasting upon all the faithful. From Jesus Christ, who commissioned her to conduct the faithful by holy and needful precepts and rules on the way to heaven the church derives the power to prescribe fasts. The church instituted the fast before Easter to imitate Jesus Christ, who fasted forty days also to participate in His merits and passion, for as Christ could only be glorified through his sufferings, so it is our duty to follow Him, we must follow Him by a life answering to His. Another object of fasting is the subjecting of the flesh to the spirit and to conquer sensual lust which war against the soul. Finally, as St. Leo says, the Christian by means of the Lenten fast, offers to God some satisfaction for his sins and atones in some measure for the sins of the whole year by a short fast of the tenth part of a year. This is done conveniently at Lent, a season devoted to meditation on the passion and death of Christ.

"In earlier times the fast of Lent was even more rigorous than at present. The early Christians abstained not only from flesh meat but from those things produced from the flesh such as butter, eggs and cheese, and also in many cases from wine and fish. They fasted during the whole day, eating only in the evening. Mere abstinence from food, however, was not the principal work insisted upon. In fact St. Leo used to say that merely depriving the body of food would not avail much unless the soul likewise was cleared from the guilt of sin. Not merely food and drink, but likewise sinful gratifications were to be abstained from. The means most insisted upon to strengthen the soul in this matter were frequent prayer, earnest meditation on the sufferings and death of Christ, frequent reception of the holy sacraments, attending mass, spiritual reading and good works, particularly those of charity.

All these works, to be profitable, must in every case be performed with the right intention and in the right manner, with a view to following Christ and of applying to ourselves the merits of his passion, of being obedient to His church, of offering oneself to God as a holy living and pleasing sacrifice, of asking God for his grace to avoid the sins we are most addicted to and of acquiring the opposite virtues.

"The first day of Lent is called Ash Wednesday, because on this day the Catholic church blesses Ashes and places them on the foreheads of the faithful saying:

"Remember man that thou art dust and into dust thou shalt return."

The church prays that those who receive these blessed ashes with a contrite heart may be preserved in soul and body that God may give them Contrition and pardon their sins, that He may grant their petitions especially the grace to do penance, and the reward promised to the truly penitent. In the olden times the sprinkling with ashes was always a sign of penance, as such God enjoined it upon the Israelites, as we see in Jeremiah 23, 34. The Nivites, Judith and others did penance in sackcloth and ashes. This rite signifies the humility which belongs to the true Christian, who considers himself as dust and ashes, and who recognizes that for his sins he will return to ashes again. The public character of the ceremony indicates the willingness of the Christian to do penance publicly and to follow the footsteps of Christ openly and courageously.

REGULATIONS FOR LENT

First.—All days of Lent, except Sundays, are fasting days of obligation.

Second.—A cup of coffee, tea or chocolate, with a cracker, or thin piece of bread, may be taken in the morning, and collation in the evening.

Third.—Custom allows the use of milk, butter, cheese, eggs and fish at the evening collation.

Fourth.—Flesh meat may be used at very meal on Sunday; at the principal meal on all other days except Wednesdays and Fridays and the second and last Saturdays of Lent.

Fifth.—Fish and flesh are not allowed at the same meal, but lard, butter and other animal fat may be used in preparing food.

Sixth.—Those who are under 21 years of age or over 60, or whose strength is impaired by debility, sickness or hard labor, are exempt from fasting, and may use meat at all meals on days on which it is allowed. Where there is doubt the confessor should be consulted.

Seventh.—By virtue of a special indulgence of the holy see, the use of flesh meat is permitted, until further notice, on all days of the year except Fridays, Ash Wednesday, Wednesday and Saturday of holy week, and the vigil of Christmas to those who perform hard labor, and to their families.

As to alms and good works, the faithful will find ample opportunity for them, besides other ways, in the collections on the first Sunday of Lent for the negro and Indian missions and the propagation of the faith, on Good Friday for the holy dices, and finally, what should especially come home to their hearts, that on Easter lay itself for the seminary.

The clergy are exhorted, in accordance with the wish of the church and the exhortations of her councils, to avail themselves of this season in order to improve upon the minds of all the people a deep sense of the sanctity and dignity of the holy sacrament of matrimony, and the vital rule wrought to souls by mixed marriages, which the church so much deprecates and deplores. For this purpose their attention is directed to No. 123 Conc. Plon. 1811, III., as also to Past. Instr.

JAMES RYAN, Bishop of Alton.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

The Wadsworth Bros.' Chico is a Long Havana Filler, Said Armstrong, and We Prove It.

When a cigar salesman told us that it was not possible to sell a long Havana filler, such as they claim the Wadsworth Bros.' Chico is, for 5c, the reply was: "Well, it is an easy thing to see whether it can be done or not," and he took a Chico from its box and cut it open.

The filler was there—long, rich, silky Havana—just what was needed to make the good smoke that the Chico is. Seeing is believing, but with the Chico, smoking is better. Try one and see for yourself, all lovers of a good smoke, how fine a cigar can be sold for 5c. The best people in Jacksonville, those who never used to smoke anything less than a 10c cigar, now buy the Chico at Armstrongs for a nickel, and get a better smoke for less money.

ENTIRELY NEW.

An entirely new and remarkable plan for introducing and selling goods of their own label was started by Armstrong's drug store, southwest corner square. They propose to give away absolutely free, a ton of coal to the one guessing nearest the number of pieces of coal in a scuttle, which is shown in their window. The only conditions are that your first purchase must be a bottle of Spruce Gum Cough Syrup—25c—and thereafter any purchase of drug store goods entitles you to a free guess.
And you may guess as many times as you make purchases.

Washington, Feb. 28.—For Illinois: Fair Wednesday and Thursday, with rising temperature; variable winds, becoming southeast and fresh.

In Society.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Tremblott very delightfully entertained a small company of friends at their home on North Church street Tuesday evening, the occasion being the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. About fifty guests were present and the friendly hospitality of the host and hostess who were assisted in entertaining by their daughter, Mrs. F. H. Rehlender, of Lincoln, Neb., made the event a most pleasant one for all present.

Six handed euchre furnished an enjoyable diversion in the evening's program and the first prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson. At the close of the game six ladies tied for first place and in the draw Mrs. Watson held the fortunate card. At the close of the game excellent refreshments were served. The rooms were very prettily decorated and the effect made the more attractive by the use of Azalea plants and ferns, while in the different rooms the candelabra and electric light-bulbs were shaded in yellow and red. The function was one highly enjoyable, and upon the departure of the guests the host and hostess were the recipients of many gracious words that bespoke their good wishes for the future.

Dr. F. P. Norbury expected to leave this morning for St. Louis, where he was called on account of the serious injury to P. T. Hughes, an expert stenographer, who suffered the fracture of his skull in a hotel fire. Hughes was until recently a patient at the Maplewood Sanatorium.

Rev. W. S. Phillips, of Mt. Sterling, spent Tuesday in the city on business.

The groom is a painter by trade. After a visit with friends and relatives in Beards town Mr. and Mrs. Lawless will be at home on South East.

KITCHER-DOBSON.

Frank C. Kitcher, of Arenzville, and Miss Harriet R. Dobson, of Virginia, were married Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock by Rev. R. F. Thrapp at his residence on West College avenue. They were accompanied by two sisters of the bride, Misses Olive and Flossie Dobson, who reside in this city.

DEATH RECORD

BRENDT.

Henry Brendt, residing at 337 East Chambers street, died Wednesday afternoon at 1:30. He was 45 years of age at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and four children, parents, three brothers, Louis, John and Charles, all of Alexander, and two sisters, Mrs. Gus Muelhausen, of Bluffs, and Mrs. Albright, residing north of Berlin.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

MOORE.

Thornton Moore, aged about 35 years, died at his home in Peoria Monday. He was formerly a resident of this city and left about five years ago for Peoria, in which city he has since resided.

The body will be brought here for burial and the funeral will be held at the Mt. Emory Baptist church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. He is survived by his wife and one sister in Chicago.

FUNERALS

The funeral of James Jones was conducted from Mt. Emory Baptist church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of Rev. J. O. Derrick.

Appropriate music for the sad occasion was furnished by a choir consisting of Mrs. C. Freeman, Mrs. O. Robertson, Misses Victoria Spencer, Cleota Dealy and Rev. Mr. Derrick. The many beautiful flowers were under the care of Miss Cleota Dealy and Miss Blanche Mallory.

After the services at the church the remains were borne to their last resting place in Jacksonville cemetery. The bearers were: Anderson Banks, James Mathews, Sherman Spencer, Warren Bryant, James Mac and James Abington.

Mrs. Sarah Madison and daughter Charlotte, of Kirksville, Mo., were in the city to attend the funeral.

PASSION PLAY

Of Oberammergau Presented at Church of Our Savior—Stereo-opticon Views, Lecture and Sacred Music Used to Fine Advantage in Portrayal.

Under the direction of Dr. John H. Scherer, of Chicago, the world famous Passion Play of Oberammergau, Bavaria, was presented at the Church of Our Savior Tuesday evening. There was a large audience present and some splendid views were exhibited, accompanied by a lecture in German and English. Two hundred and eight different scenes from the time of Adam and Eve to the Ascension of Christ were given with an interpolation of sacred music that made the occasion one of deep solemnity and reverence. It is indeed a sublime drama that is pictured on the screen.

The audience was an attentive one and listened with deep interest to the lecture which lasted three hours. The force of the presentation is lost by any attempt at description and the views and scenes pictured must be seen to be appreciated. The humanity of Christ is brought home in a striking way by the exhibition of scenes in his early life but the atmosphere that surrounds them and the sacred place in which they were shown tends to remove whatever feeling of repulsion may exist as to the propriety of the presentation.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock an exhibition will be given for the children and this evening at 8 o'clock another exhibition will be given.

The concert of the Jacksonville Choral club which was announced for this evening has been postponed on account of the union revival meetings now in progress.

M. P. L. MEETING.

A regular meeting of the members of M. P. L. lodge No. 19 was held last night at the office of the Johnston Agency. There was a large attendance.

The little daughter of Mr. M. L. Newton a short time ago said: "Papa I am a Jacksonville girl." Upon making inquiry why so, she remarked: "I like to live here because it snows and doesn't out in San Francisco." Ruth evidently misses the seasons as most persons do who are from a colder climate.
